

Districting Community Meetings

Find Out How You Can Be Involved!

The City of Claremont is considering transitioning from at-large elections to by-district elections and wants the community's help drafting district boundaries. Draft maps will be available for review on the City website and at City Hall on January 28. Find out about the process and give your suggestions on district boundaries at four up-coming meetings.

Public Hearings

The City's demographer will present the draft maps submitted by the community and the City Council will accept public comment.

February 4 & February 12, 2019 at 6:30 pm

City Council Chamber
225 W. Second Street

Community Workshops

Learn about the districting process, review the draft maps, ask questions, and share your comments on the draft maps.

Saturday, February 9 at 11:00 am

Youth Activities Center 1717 N.
Indian Hill Boulevard

Saturday, February 9 at 2:00 pm

Claremont Place Senior Living
120 W. San Jose Avenue

Find out more about the process, get a schedule of meetings, and review maps at www.claremontca.org/districting.