Introduction:

This resource directory has been developed by the Claremont Senior Program to meet the requests for a general list of older adult living resources in the area and surrounding community.

A listing in this directory does not constitute an endorsement, certification, or guarantee, nor is any exclusion intentional. Materials listed are for informational purposes only and in no way constitute a recommendation of any facility or organization by the City of Claremont.

We encourage users of the directory to verify information before selecting an assisted living community, nursing home, or senior apartment.

The City of Claremont and the Claremont Senior Program disclaim any liability to any person(s), organization, or agencies for any injury, loss, or damage caused by the inclusion, omission, or errors in the Adult Living Resources Directory. All parties listed in the directory have voluntarily given permission to the Joslyn Center to have their center/facility listed in this directory. As in all directories, names, addresses, and telephone numbers are subject to change.

Case Management, Resources, and Referrals:

A variety of resources and referrals are offered to seniors and families in the Claremont community regarding age-related concerns:

- Abuse/Neglect; Referrals to APS/CPS or other programs
- Financial Resources; Money Management, Social Security
- Homelessness; Emergency Shelter Referrals
- Housing Resources
- Legal Assistance Referrals; Legal Assistance Program
- Medical Resources; Medicare, Medi-Cal
- Mental Health Counseling; Tri-City Mental Health

Services are offered Monday through Thursday at the Joslyn Center from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. For more information, please call (909) 399-5488.

Real Connections Village (In-Home Aging):

This is a membership program that helps one age happily, healthfully, and successfully in their own home. The Village model provides connection, community, and a network of resources that address practical needs, as well as social, cultural, and educational activities. It is designed to make life less complicated and more fulfilling for seniors aging at home. Call your local village Real Connections for more information at (909) 621-6300.

Affordable and Low Income Apartments:

These apartments are for older adults who are independent. Meal service, activity programs, and services usually aren't included.

Retirement Homes/Assisted Living Communities:

These are generally large hotel-type buildings that accommodate anywhere from 50-100+ residents. Basic amenities include meals, daily activities, exercise programs, and transportation to scheduled outings or appointments. Most homes are licensed to provide assisted living and can offer help with dressing, bathing, escorting to meals, and medications. Some assisted living facilities also have dementia units. Costs vary depending on location of home and care needs of the resident.

Skilled Nursing, Alzheimer's, and Rehabilitation Facilities:

These facilities offer skilled nursing care and are licensed by the Department of Health Services. Licensed trained professionals staff them, such as: registered nurses (RN), licensed vocational nurses (LVN), and certified nursing assistants (CNA). Many offer occupational, speech, and physical rehabilitation services. Some will accept patients who have I.V.'s, g-tubes, and/or tracheotomies. Alzheimer's facilities offer specialized programs for residents living with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of memory loss. Residential, Assisted Living, or Nursing Facilities can offer these programs.

Hospice:

Hospice Facilities are specialized to accommodate and support terminally ill patients and their families. The focus of Hospice care is to provide as much comfort as possible physically, emotionally, and spiritually. In addition to the medical and nursing care that is offered by most healthcare programs, Hospice extends bereavement and supportive services to the terminal individual and their loved ones. Hospice goes where the patient goes, which means hospice is often at home or at the hospital.
